Prayers for this week - Doreen

Good and gracious God, I thank you for the beauty of the earth and all creation. Help me to hear always the calling to be a good steward of your gifts, the caretaker of all you have entrusted to us on earth. Let me always recognize, cherish and enjoy the goodness in all of creation. Amen

1 Peter 4:8–11 - Ros
A Faithful Steward

Above all, keep loving one another earnestly, since love covers a multitude of sins. 9 Show hospitality to one another without grumbling. 10 As each has received a gift, use it to serve one another, as good stewards of God's varied grace: 11 whoever speaks, as one who speaks oracles of God; whoever serves, as one who serves by the strength that God supplies—in order that in everything God may be glorified through Jesus Christ. To him belong glory and dominion forever and ever. Amen

I have the privilege of being a stay-at-home mom to my six kids. This allows me to spend time with them during the day, greet them after school, teach them, and watch them grow. One of the downsides to being a stay-at-home mom is that my days are full of mundane tasks: washing dishes, doing laundry, sweeping the floor, changing diapers, and picking up toys. These things are not exciting or fun, but they need to be done.

One day as I was matching socks, today's quoted verse came to mind. Do I grumble? Is my work really blessing others if I have a bad attitude? Sometimes it seems that no one else cares about the chores I do, but then I realize as I sit alone matching piles of socks and folding tiny clothes that God sees me. God knows my heart and attitude. God knows if I am working as a joyful servant or just trying to cross things off my to-do list

God notices all of us even in the mundane and seemingly pointless tasks of our daily lives. When we take the opportunity to serve others with love, we are faithful stewards of God's grace — no matter the task at hand.

A Faithful Steward

1. When have you had a job or a role that felt mundane or even unimportant? When others asked you about this job, how did you describe it? Can you identify with the writer's feelings?
2. Think about a time when you felt you were serving God joyfully. What were you doing? Who was with you? How could you serve God joyfully this week?
4. What practices, prayers, or scriptures help you to remember God's presence in your daily life? What new practice will you incorporate into your day to help you be mindful of God?
5. Whose work at the church where you previously worshipped most often goes unnoticed? How can you express gratitude for their efforts?

SACRAMENT FOR REST OF THE YEAR

October 13 you should have sufficient for.

Then we have Oct 27, November 10 & 24, Dec 8 & 22

Please let Fr Max know the number of reserved sacrament breads you need till the end of the year.

SECOND ATTEMPT

We hope to welcome Andrew Powell this Sunday. Andrew lives in Melbourne and asked if he could join us. Andrew was at Semaphore while I was there and is now living in Pakenham. Andrew got a little confused with the log on method, so hopefully he is not sorted out for this week.

1 At the name of Jesus
ev'ry knee shall bow,
ev'ry tongue confess him
King of glory now;
'tis the Father's pleasure
we should call him Lord,
who from the beginning
was the mighty Word.

2 At his voice creation
sprang at once to sight,
all the angel faces,
all the hosts of light,
thrones and domination,
stars upon their way,
all the heav'nly orders
in their great array.

3 In your hearts enthrone him;
there let him subdue
all that is not holy,
all that is not true;
He is God the saviour
He is Christ the Lord
ever to be worshipped
trusted and adored

4 Christians, this Lord Jesus
shall return again
with the Father's glory,
with his angel train;
for all wreaths of empire
meet upon his brow,
and our hearts confess him
King of glory now.
and our hearts confess him
King of glory now.
